Pedestrian Dies After Accident

S.J. Porter, 29, a British soldier training at Camp Grayling, was pronounced dead at Grayling Mercy Hospital on Monday, August 21, following a car/pedestrian accident.

According to the Crawford County Sheriff Dept., the accident occurred at about 11:36 p.m. when Porter walked onto West M-72 near the Ole Dam Party Store and was struck by a car driven by Paul Failing from Grayling.

Sheriff deputies said that Failing attempted to stop, but was unable to avoid the collision. Failing tested negative for any alcohol, was released at the scene, and will probably not be cited for anything.

While the accident investigation is not complete, it appears the soldier was walking back to Camp Grayling alone when he stepped into the path of the car. Camp authorities speculate the soldier's unfamiliarity with the American system of driving on the right side of the road may have caused him to be looking for traffic coming from the opposite direction.

2 Beaver Creek Residences Burn

The Beaver Creek Fire Department fought two apparently unrelated structure fires on Monday, August 21. Both structures were complete losses.

The first fire, at the Nick Andropoulos residence near Dort Road, was reported at about midnight. Beaver Creek firemen arrived to find the dwelling fully engulfed, but was able to extinguish the fire by approximately 1 a.m.

The Crawford County Sheriff Dept. is continuing to investigate the fire. The Gaylord State Police K-9 unit was called to check for possible tracks leaving the scene. Anyone having knowledge, or observing a suspicious vehicle in the area is asked to call the Crawford County Sheriff Dept. at (517) 348-6341.

No one was home at the time of the fire. Sheriff deputies are investigating a second fire that destroyed the Kirt Kitchen residence on Four Mile road, two miles east of I-72.

A passerby reported the fire at 5:18 a.m. When Sheriff deputies and Beaver Creek firemen arrived at the scene the building had burned completely to the ground. Officials estimate that the fire had been burning for a couple of hours before it was spotted.

No one was home at the time of the fire. Kitchen is with his National Guard unit in Germany and has been notified of the fire.

The cause of this fire is also still being investigated.

There were no injuries as a result of fighting these fires, and the Beaver Creek Fire Dept. was assisted by the Grayling City and Township Fire Dept. at both fires.

Local Unit Due Back from Germany

One of Camp Grayling's local units, the 1071st Maintenance Company, departed for Germany on Saturday, August 5, and is due back August 26.

While in Germany, the unit's mission is to both reduce the maintenance backlog in Europe and also to demonstrate the feasibility of using Reserve Component Units to perform real-world missions in Europe. The majority of the unit members reside in Grayling or the surrounding area.

Annual Treasure Hunt Starts This Saturday

County Ambulance Future Still Undecided

By Irene Pettyjohn

The issue of whether the county ambulance will continue to operate after the September 12 deadline set by the Crawford County Commissioners is still up in the air.

Grayling Township and the City of Grayling have voted not to comply with the commissioner's proposal which stated that unless Grayling Township and the City of Grayling agreed to financially support the county ambulance service, the Crawford County Ambulance Division would be closed, and all EMT's would be laid off.

Other government agencies involved in the proposal are Beaver Creek Township, Lovells Township and a portion of South Branch Township. Each of these units voted to fund the county ambulance if the other affected units also supported the county's proposal. These townships have also expressed an interest in placing the ambulance issue before the county taxpayers in the form of a millage request.

The county's proposal stipulated that both Grayling Township and the City of Grayling would have to agree to the proposed contract in order for the proposal to be viable.

Arnold Stancil, Grayling Township supervisor, said that Grayling Township board members would assist all they could in getting the ambulance issue placed on a county-wide ballot at the earliest possible date. Stancil said Grayling township voted against the county's proposal because a township cannot spend what is not budgeted.

"Even if we amended the budget, I'm not sure we could come up with the monies involved in the county's proposal," said Stancil.

County Commissioner Jeannette Kitchen, Crawford County Ambulance Corp director Tony Doremire, and township and city officials are continuing to meet in an attempt to look at all of the possible solutions to the ambulance problem. Meetings were held on August 3 and August 22.

Commissioner Robert McLachlan said that he was aware of the need for an ambulance service in Crawford County and was concerned about the present situation.

Mark Hartman, of Grayling, won a 1989 Buick Regal Custom Coup worth $15,920 on the "Fame & Fortune" Michigan Lottery TV game show.

Hartman was among six contestants eligible for a $50,000 first prize. Yvonne Styra, 56, of Posen, won the grand prize. Hartman, 39, took home the second best prize. Carla Haenlein, 46, of Evart, won a 1989 Buick worth slightly less at $15,389.

Ruth Banaszak, 59, of South Bend, Indiana, won $2,500. Walter Leaman, 88, of Freeland, won $800. Ronald Martin, 47, of Clarkston, won $500. All contestants are guaranteed to win at least $500.

Participants on the Fame & Fortune receive star treatment for a full day. They stay overnight at the Omni International Hotel, use VIP Limousine Service, receive a special luncheon at the Whitney Restaurant, and even have television make-up applied for the show.

Hartman, co-owner of the Ole Dam Party Store with his wife Marilyn and Mr. and Mrs. Gary McLaughlin, is a long-time lottery player and previously won $333 in the Daily 3. He purchased his winning instant ticket at Cross Kwik stop in Frederic.

Hartman is an avid golfer, enjoys both downhill and cross-country skiing and coaches a Little League baseball team. He and his wife have two sons.

WINS 1989 CAR - "Wait till my neighbors in Grayling see me driving this next week," a happy Mark Hartman, says to Diane Sarnecky, co-host of the Michigan Lottery's weekly game show, "Fame & Fortune," as he looks at a picture of a 1989 Buick Regal, worth $15,920, that he won on the August 19 telecast.

No PCB Found in 1987 Camp Grayling Spill

The recent Avalanche article which stated that Department of Natural Resources (DNR) and Camp Grayling personnel confirmed a PCB spill had occurred at Camp Grayling in 1987 has been disputed by Department of Military Affairs (DMA) spokesman LTC Brian Downey.

LTC Downey presented a DNR report, dated March 26, 1987, that was overlooked during the research for the Avalanche's article. This report, conducted by Phillip L. Schrantz, Environmental Quality Analyst, contained laboratory analysis data proving that soil samples taken where the transformers had been improperly stored (samples of the soil in the 55 gallon drum), contents of the spilled transformer and the contents of a second 55 gallon drum (oily water) contained no detectable levels of PCBs.

The basis of the August 10th article calling the incident a PCB spill was taken from DNR Hazardous Waste Manifest forms completed by Andrea Sikkenga, Camp Grayling's environment specialist, and a laboratory analysis report from DMA samplings taken of the contents of the transformers in 1987 and sent to Brooks Air Force Base in Texas. The information regarding the transformers was accurate on the analysis report; however, the information on the bottom of the report concerning the soil samples and other suspected materials were added to the report at a later date by Sikkenga when the transformers and other materials were sent to Selfridge in February, 1988. Sikkenga said the PCB data contained on these materials were "worst case scenario" data used to ensure that the materials were disposed of as hazardous waste. She explained that Selfridge personnel had directed her to label the items as though they were contaminated with PCB's because she had not received the results of the DNR samplings. The Schrantz inspection data was not reported.

LTC Downey did not take exception to any of the other facts reported in the August 10th article. He said the DMA acknowledges that it was in non-compliance of the Environmental Protection Agency's Toxic Substance Control Act (TSCA) regulations for eight years prior to the 1987 transformer incident, as well as state PCB regulations.

Because of the sensitivity of the issue and the numerous steps taken by Camp Grayling to rectify the transformer situation, the information contained in the August 10th article attributed to Camp Grayling had been presented for approval to both Sikkenga and LTC Lee Lawson, Facility Engineer. Corrections were made to the article at their request. It was never the intent of this newspaper to distort the 1987 PCB incident, but rather to report it as factual as possible.

According to the DNR, the reported 1987 spill is technically a "PCB spill" because materials containing PCB's were improperly stored. However, because the DNR laboratory results show no detectable PCB levels were found, the Avalanche regrets the use of the headline "1987 PCB Spill Cleaned Up at Camp Grayling" and the phrase "PCB spill" used in the August 10th article. The Avalanche apologizes for any problems caused from not publishing the results of the 1987 DNR laboratory results. Other portions of the article stating Camp Grayling is now in compliance with PCB regulations and questions remaining about 1976 to 1984 storage and handling of PCB materials remain unchanged.

Beaver Creek Fire Engines Installed with Computers

The fire engines at the Beaver Creek Fire Department now carry computers to give firemen access to potential life saving information from the department's main station house computer.

Ed Holtcamp, Beaver Creek Fire Chief, said that the system is the culmination of a project that began as an idea in 1983 and slowly came to fruition through the generosity of the Weyerhaeuser and Georgia-Pacific Corporations.

In 1984 Holtcamp took his idea of data basing all pertinent fire fighting and medical information of Crawford County residents to the Weyerhaeuser Corporation, and was granted $10,000 for a computer system. Holtcamp said he was convinced that this system of information would assist county firemen in their quest to provide the fastest, safest, most efficient fire fighting techniques available. Weyerhaeuser saw the value in Holtcamp's plan and financed the project.

The data base contains information about residential and commercial structure locations; the fastest route to the emergency site; potentially dangerous situations that the Firemen may encounter, such as stored chemicals, LP gas tanks or gasoline tanks; vital medical information of each resident, and hazardous fire situations that would require the use of special protective clothing by firemen.

The original idea was to include the entire county, but Holtcamp said the townships were slow in supplying the necessary information, and finally withdrew from the project, so he concentrated on the Beaver Creek area.

When the computer was programmed with all the important pieces of information, firemen had access to important information about a particular residence and its inhabitants by simply typing the resident's telephone number into the computer.

"By 1985 the data base was working," said

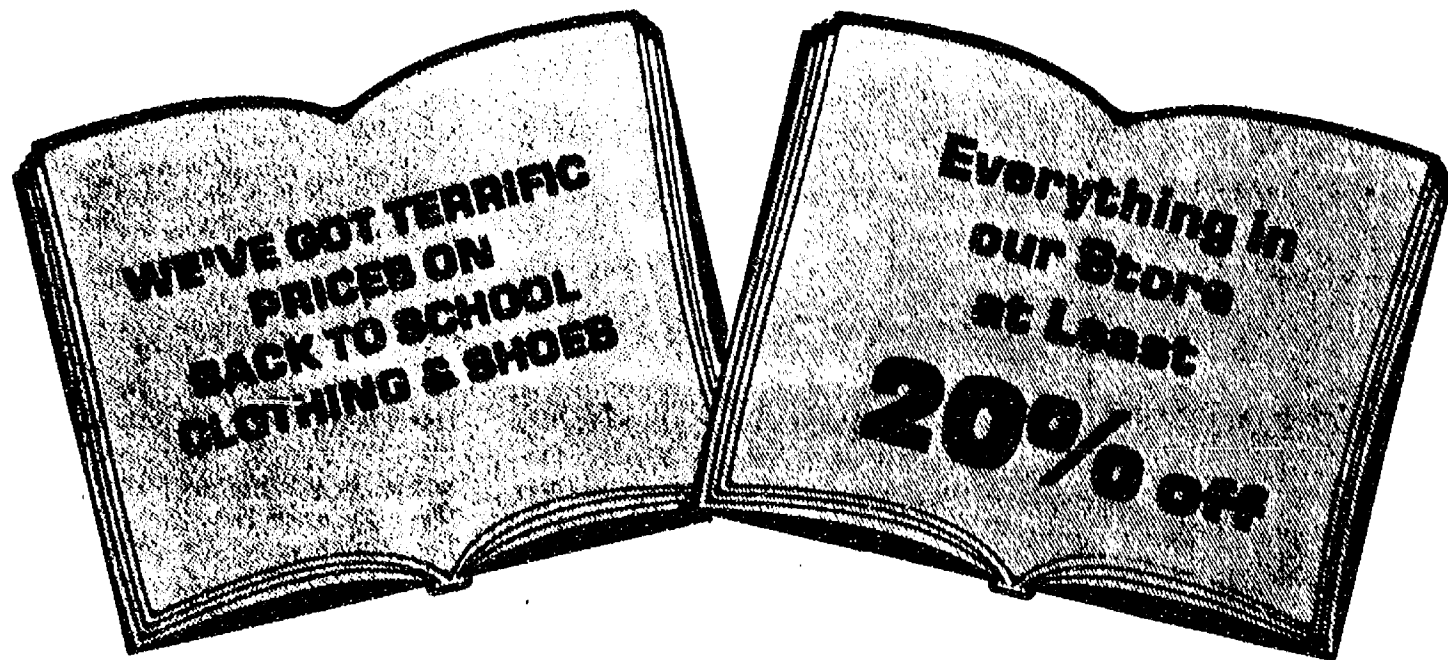

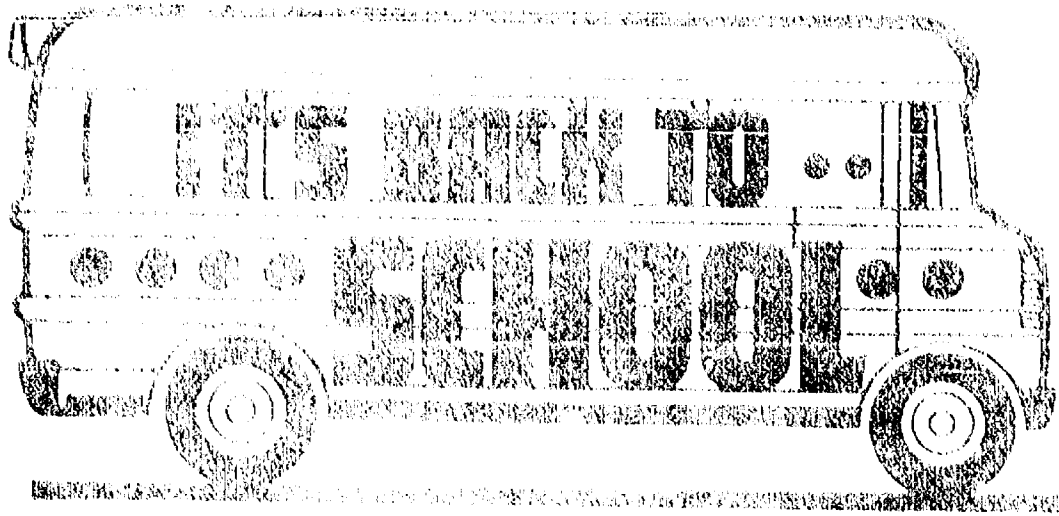

Holtcamp, "but it was clumsy, we were dependent upon second-hand information relayed via our radios," he said. "We needed a quicker access route, we needed on-board computers."

The problem with this idea was that computers are notoriously touchy instruments, and Holtcamp said he could not find a unit that could withstand the shock and abuse of truck travel (backwoods bumps can inflict thrusts of about five g's) and also be powered by several different power sources, be able to handle volumes of information and offer software that would allow the direct transfer of information.

Last year Holtcamp found just such a computer in the Epson Equity LT (lap top) unit. It met all the department's requirements. To finance the computers, Holtcamp approached Georgia-Pacific Corp. and found them willing to supply the necessary $1,800.

The computers were installed and have been in

DNR Schedules AuSable Hearings

The Department of Natural Resources (DNR) has scheduled eight public hearings on proposed zoning rules for the AuSable River and its tributaries. A hearing in Grayling has been set for Tuesday, August 29, 7:00 p.m. at the High School Auditorium, North Old 27.

A total of 349 miles of the AuSable River and its tributaries were designated as wild-scenic river under the Natural River Act (P.A. 281 of 1970) by the Natural Resources Commission in July of 1987. The act encourages county or township governments to establish appropriate zoning controls within one year after such designation.

Affected are those lands within 400 feet of portions of the AuSable River and the streams listed below not covered by an acceptable zoning ordinance: Kolka Creek, Bradford Creek, East Branch, South Branch, Douglass Creek, Thayer Creek, Hudson Creek, Robinson Creek, Beaver Creek, East Creek, South Creek, North Branch, Turtle Creek, Chub Creek, Big Creek, Sohn Creek, Beaver Creek, Wolf Creek, Loud Creek, Perry Creek, Comins Creek, Glennie Creek, Nine Mile Creek and Blockhouse Creek.

The proposed rules do not apply to Grayling and Lovells Townships, which have already adopted acceptable zoning.

If at any time a township or county adopts and adequately enforces acceptable zoning, then that local ordinance will take precedence over state administered zoning.

Interested persons unable to attend the hearings may submit comments in writing until September 13 to the DNR's Land and Water Management Division, P.O. Box 30028, Lansing 48909.

Through the generosity of Betty Pamerleau, and the memorial funds for her husband, the late George Pamerleau, $1,000 was donated to help assure residents and visitors alike in Northern Michigan, that blood will be readily available if and when they or their families need it.

Holocaust Survivor Returns to Germany

By Nancy Lemmen

Paula Ingberg Jackson, of Grayling, admits that she "was one of the lucky ones." A young woman of Jewish heritage, she managed to flee the Holocaust in 1939, from Minden, Germany, "at the last minute and under very difficult circumstances."

Last May -- fifty years after her narrow escape -- Paula returned to the city as a guest of the German government for an emotional reunion with other Holocaust survivors from the Minden area. The visitors came from all over the world: the United States, Australia, England, Israel and South Africa.

She explains, "The younger German generation is trying in its own way to kind of make up" for the nation's murders of more than six million Jewish people in the Second World War.

The visit was coordinated by the Christian-Jewish Cultural Organization of Minden in conjunction with the German government. Paula, accompanied by her daughter Elizabeth, was flown to Minden courtesy of the government for a week of commemorative activities.

The 49 Holocaust survivors who attended stayed in the beautiful Hotel Bad Minden. On Monday, the 22nd of May, they worshipped in a Jewish synagogue. On Tuesday, the group visited the Court House, where they met the Bürgermeister (mayor), who "said some nice words."

They also attended a memorial service for those who had died. For Paula, that included most of her family. She lost her father, mother, brothers, sisters, cousins, aunts and uncles to Adolph Hitler's purge of the Jewish community.

Paula herself "very nearly did not make it." She escaped under circumstances so traumatic that even a half-century later in a different continent she declines to talk about them.

On Wednesday, a reception was held at the Stadttheater (State theatre), where a high government official spoke and musicians performed for the guests and many state and city officials.

On Thursday, the group braved an emotional visit to Bergen-Belsen Concentration Camp. The buildings are no longer there, Paula explains, because Hitler's troops burned them before the Allies' arrival. Only two mounds remain to mark the sites of its infamous mass graves.

"But you can't hide everything, can you?" she asks sadly. So photos and documents hang in a museum there as testimony to the horrible events of fifty years ago.

Bergen-Belsen, she adds, is where the young diarist Anne Frank died after Nazis discovered her family's hiding place and arrested them.

Among her photos from the concentration camp is one of a woman standing by a tombstone whose words read: "ISRAEL AND THE WORLD SHALL REMEMBER/THIRTY THOUSAND JEWS/EXTERMINATED IN THE CONCENTRATION CAMP/OF BERGEN-BELEN AT THE HANDS OF THE MURDEROUS NAZIS/EARTH, CONCEAL NOT THE BLOOD/SHED ON THEE!/FIFTH APRIL 1946/114TH NISSAN 57061/CENTRAL JEWISH COMMITTEE/BRITISH ZONE."

"You don't forget anything like this," says Paula. "They did terrible things. God forgive. You've probably seen it in movies. I tell you, it's all true."

Perhaps to change the group's mood, they were also taken through the beautiful old city of Celle, whose 15th and 16th century buildings were not destroyed in World War II, but stand today as they stood half a millennium ago.

On Friday, they toured Minden, where Paula and Elizabeth met relatives and acquaintances who had also escaped. Another performance, by a folk dance troupe and a children's choir, was held in the Stadttheater.

On Saturday, they attended a special worship service at the synagogue, a musical performance at the theatre and a final banquet where a high official spoke to the group. On Sunday, she and Elizabeth left for home.

"Their German hosts were very nice," she says. "They really put themselves out to make our stay comfortable...under very difficult circumstances."

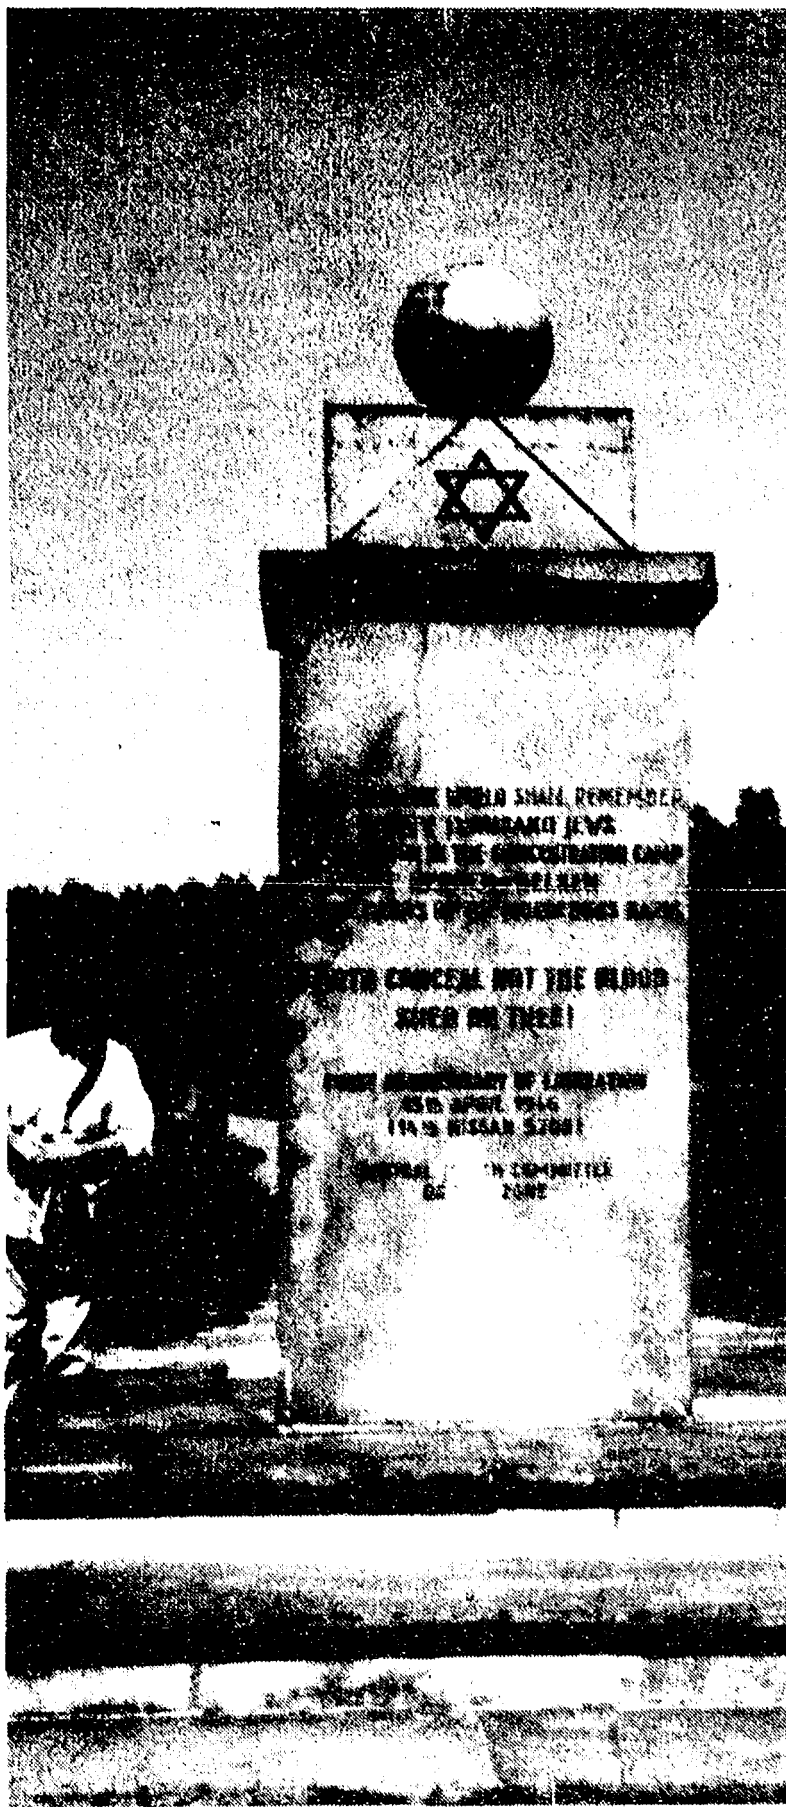

Paula Ingberg was born in Germany in 1918 to Polish parents. She fled to England in 1939, where she worked as a waitress in a hotel. Paula met Kenneth Jackson, a soldier in the American Air Force, while doing volunteer farm work for the English government.

They married in 1945, before Kenneth was shipped home. Paula was forced to stay in England for another year before following him to Grayling, where she has lived for the past 43 years. Kenneth, worked at the Grayling Country Club, died six years ago.

Besides Elizabeth, a graduate student at MSU, Paula has three other children -- David, who lives in Grayling with his family; Robert and Rosemary, both of whom live elsewhere.

How does she feel about having made her difficult and emotional trip? "I'm glad I went. If I didn't I would always feel bad. It was one trip I had to make."

But she admits that "in one way, it was very emotionally sad. When it was going on, I didn't think so much because we were busy and it was enjoyable. Now, after it's all over with, it's harder on me."

AT BERGEN-BELEN -- A tombstone marks the mass graves at Bergen-Belsen Concentration Camp, where 30,000 Jews were exterminated.

AT A BANQUET -- Paula (center) poses with two other visitors. The woman to her right is a concentration camp survivor.

AT THE COURTHOUSE -- The group of Holocaust survivors who visited Minden pose in front of the Courthouse.

BLACKIRON DAYS -- will return to Hartwick Pines State Park this weekend. Blacksmithing and other 19th century crafts will be demonstrated on Saturday and Sunday. Hartwick Pines State Park is located on M-93 northeast of Grayling.

New Higgins Lake Foundation To Raise $3 Million for Lake

A Higgins Lake Foundation has been created with a goal raising $3,000,000 to protect the beauty and quality of Higgins Lake and its watershed.

Foundation President Robert Morley said a check for $50,000, part of a $75,000 pledge from the Morley Brothers Foundation in Saginaw, has already been received.

"Higgins Lake is one of Michigan's greatest natural resources", said Lucy Thomson, Foundation Vice President. "It has been promoted as the 'Sixth Most Beautiful Lake in the World.'"

"Over time, however, the once crystal-clear quality of the water has diminished drastically. We now find scum on boat bottoms, slimy, fish-like organisms attaching themselves to docks and underwater rocks, and accelerating seaweed growth. And now we are seeing increasing numbers of ducks on the Lake which some believe are contributing to many reported cases of swimmers' itch", Thomson said. "The causes of these problems are several: improper sewage disposal, too much of the wrong kind of lawn fertilizers, too many power boats and just thoughtless misuse, such as bathing in the lake and dumping leaves and grass clippings - which fosters algae growth, plus many other factors resulting from increasing pressure from the explosive population growth within the lake's watershed."

Other Foundation Trustees are Grayling attorney Bill Carey, Cross Country Ski Headquarters owner Bob Frye, insurance industry consultant Frank Cooper, Saginaw attorney Ted Braun and Gene Yehle, retired Dow Chemical Financial Officer. Crawford County borders Higgins Lake on part of the north shore. Those wishing additional information about making a gift to the Higgins Lake Foundation should call Bob Morley at 1-517-790-0511.

August bits and pieces for the few of you not on vacation:

Because the state Dept. of Transportation still hasn't put in a left turn signal at the downtown intersection, I joined the accident club there two weeks ago. A car trying to make a left turn got hit so hard by a vehicle going straight through that it spun the car into my truck.

Several weeks ago, the Dept. of Transportation was taking a survey of the intersection and the state truck was parked in the handicapped parking space in front of Mac's Drugs. City police were called and the state truck moved and parked in front of Weaver's Gifts.

There were 3 persons sitting in the Dept. of Transportation vehicle apparently taking a survey. I didn't see any of the three writing or doing any other work, but I'm sure there was a good reason to have three persons there.

Whoever thought of scrambles for golf sure has helped the golf boom. Scrambles, in which a four-some plays the best ball hit, makes it fun for hackers and infrequent players.

I wish I could figure out a scrambles game for tennis. I like the idea of hitting a bad shot and not having it count.

There were a few awful shots at the Little League golf outing a few days ago, but I won't mention names because I'm trying to be nice to local folks in this column and I'm also trying not to put my own name in the column more than a dozen times.

Paul Thomson pointed out that the M-72 West railroad crossing is getting bad again. Why does that crossing get so rough?

Tony Doremire says it surprised him this summer to hear Grayling people talk about planning their driving route to avoid congested areas and left-hand turns in Grayling.

I'm still surprised at the contrast in driving conditions here. On the I-75 Business Loop South, it sometimes seems as hazardous as big-city driving. Yet on other nearby roads you can poke along at a slow, safe speed like any other small town.

The day our reporter Irene Pettyjohn was in the 48th Circuit Courtroom for the Richard Conway murder plea sentencing, five out of nine persons appearing in the court were charged with criminal sexual conduct. As awful as a subject it is, we will run a story on criminal sexual conduct cases here in the next few weeks.

Before anyone in this county complains or nit-picks about our police, firemen, or ambulance service, think about the lives they have saved or the difficult situations they encounter.

It sure is fun having movies here at the Rialto so soon after they're released. I don't know how they do it for such a small town but way to go, guys. It seems like going to the movies is a weekly event for a lot of folks again.

Someone suggested joining the County Fair with the Milltown Festival during the same week. Combining the AuSable Canoe Marathon with Milltown added to both events.

Bill Joseph had a map of the area west of Grayling in 1927 and it showed very few roads and houses at Lake Margrethe.

The biggest surprise on the map to me was the old route called "Plains Road" west of Grayling. That only route traveling west from Grayling to Kalkaska didn't pass close to the lake like M-72 and it is just a rough trail road now.

I like the Grayling area because every week night and weekend can be like a vacation such as when we float down the river, camp out, or just walk through the woods.

Guard Answered Call To Help Neighbor

Dear Jon,

On Friday morning, August 4, I was driving west out of town on M-72. Near DuBois Lumber, a Carlisle Canoe van was stalled in the east bound lane, blocking traffic, which was backed up across the railroad tracks. A Grayling city policeman was on the scene, doing his best to direct traffic around the stalled vehicle. Directly in front of me was a military vehicle filled with soldiers. I watched with interest as the City policeman motioned for the Guardsmen to stop. He gestured toward the van and then indicated a spot on Norway Street. Quickly, the military vehicle pulled off the road and the soldiers jumped out. They put their shoulders to the van and pushed it out of traffic.

I know this is just an isolated, insignificant incident, but I think it is very typical of the Guard. Those soldiers were from Indiana and had no personal interest in helping that policeman or Carlisle Canoes. But, they answered the call to help a neighbor when asked, just like they always have and just like they always will. Evidently the Guard does not spend all their time in Grayling despoiling the environment and harassing trout fishermen as some have said. I know that on this day at least, there were a few people in Grayling that were glad to have the Guard around.

Thank you for letting me give these great guys a little recognition that they so richly deserve and so rarely get. Way to go, National Guard!

Contras should fold 'em up

IT LOOKS AS IF the Contra forces bedeviling the Sandinista government in Nicaragua for the last several years may as well fold up their tents and go away.

Support for the Contras is all but dried up completely.

Presidents of five Central American countries have signed an agreement calling for disarming and disbanding the estimated 11,000 or so armed Contras by late this year. The Contras -- fashioned by former president Reagan as Nicaraguan Freedom Fighters -- have been based in neighboring Honduras.

But what neighborhood support the Contras have enjoyed is apparently gone.

The pact was signed by the presidents of Honduras, Nicaragua, Guatemala, El Salvador and Costa Rica. The agreement was properly called a triumph for Nicaragua's Marxist president, Daniel Ortega.

IN RETURN FOR the agreement to disband the Contras, Nicaragua promised to guarantee democracy, allow the Contras to return home, and drop a suit in the World Court against Honduras for providing haven for the Contras.

Some in the Bush Administration talk bravely of continuing Contra influence.

"I think it's too early and unfair to say the game is over," said Marlin Fitzwater, White House spokesman. Mr. Fitzwater also expressed some doubt that the Sandinistas would keep their promises of democratic reform.

They probably won't. Democracy at best is elusive, and when it must come as a concession from a Marxist revolutionary regime such as Mr. Ortega's Sandinistas, chances are that democracy simply won't happen.

Promise is one thing; communists historically are good at promising. Performance is quite another thing; and communists historically are not so good at performing -- especially when it means installing a democratic form of government.

WHEN MR. REAGAN left the White House, the Contras lost their boldest and most effective champion. Without Mr. Reagan holding political feet to the fire, support for the Contras has withered and is now all but dead.

President Bush, it should be acknowledged, has given verbal support to the Contras. But Mr. Bush is a realist and a pragmatist; the facts are that the people of the United States don't feel strongly anti-Ortega and pro-Contra.

Without popular support for a cause, political support soon dries up. That's what's happened to the Contras.

The reality is that America doesn't have the will to oppose the Sandinista regime and to support the Contras.

People in this country may as well resign themselves to the fact that communism has established another solid base in this hemisphere in Nicaragua. We have lived with communism in Cuba for 20 years or so now; we can probably live with communism in Nicaragua as well.

BUT THE INSIDIOUS truth is that communism will not stop at Cuba and Nicaragua. It will continue to spread in Central America and in this hemisphere.

That's what "revolution without borders" means. That's what the Sandinistas preached as they established their foothold in Nicaragua.

"Revolution without borders." Where will the communist offensive end? It won't.

Certainly the Contras have been an imperfect representative of the anti-communist movement in Central America. But they were all the anti-communists had. Now, for all practical purposes, they are gone, too.

Food for thought comes from a comment made in another regard by Vernon Walters, United States ambassador to the United Nations.

Said Mr. Walters: "The United States is not isolating itself from the rest of the world. Millions are trying to get into the United States. Who is trying to immigrate to Nicaragua, Cuba or Vietnam? Anyone who wants to leave my country is free to do so without fear of being shot by the border guards or put in prison."

The American way is still the best way. We can be sure that's not what the present leaders of Nicaragua have in mind.

Grayling's Guns of August

Upward of 7,000 soldiers of the Michigan Army National Guard are on the ground at Camp Grayling this week and next for an intensive two weeks of summer training. Their exercises are more important now than ever before because of the greatly enhanced role of the Guard in national defense. It is instructive to consider what they are doing and why they are there.

The change of role for the Guard dates back to the Vietnam War. President Lyndon Johnson refused, for political reasons, to mobilize the Guard for service in Asia, and sent young draftees to war instead. We are all familiar with the charges that Vice-President Dan Quayle served in the National Guard at that time to avoid Vietnam.

In the last days of his administration, however, Mr. Johnson was persuaded to send in a token force to placate National Guard leaders who knew they couldn't expect budget support if they were not allowed to fight. Since that humiliation, the Pentagon has repositioned the Guard so it will never again be left behind.

Most Guard formations are now affiliated with a regular force unit under a "capstone" program. For example, the 46th Infantry Brigade of Grand Rapids is a "capstone" unit of the 7th Corps in Stuttgart, West Germany. None of the lean overseas brigades are complete until joined by their "capstone" Guard unit. In most cases, the soldiers overseas are combat troops, while their National Guard units serving at home are their support troops, such as petroleum companies, bridge builders and heavy maintenance specialists. In the event of war, National Guard support units will be mobilized first.

In addition, 55 percent of the Army's combat forces are now either National Guard or Army Reserve units.

Because of this change, the "Total Army" concept was developed. Guard "Capstone" formations must be as well trained as regular forces on the same equipment, and they must achieve those standards by training one weekend a month plus two weeks at Camp Grayling during the summer.

Guard units do well in open competition with regular Army units. This year, the bridging company to beat in a crossing of the Rhine is the Michigan National Guard engineering outfit from Sault Ste. Marie, and last year, the U.S. Army's best machine gunners were from the Michigan Guard.

There has been an enormous controversy over Camp Grayling, which has been the Guard's main training site for 75 years. Local business people support the base because it pours $30 million a year of soldiers' money into the local economy. Cottagers and trout fishermen detest the Guard because of the noise and vibration from firing artillery guns and flying warplanes at low levels close to the Au Sable River, one of the nation's premier trout streams.

Responding to the complaints aired in recent hearings convened by Gov. James Blanchard's task force, the Guard has implemented 30 of 43 recommendations, among them an artillery firing curfew from three hours past sunset to sunrise.

The country must have a well-trained National Guard, however, and that means that the Michigan Military Department must have Camp Grayling. The soldiers who go there must be able to fire their howitzers in the middle of that 147,000 acre reservation, because they can't do that on weekends in Battle Creek or Pontiac. These are the realities.

the testing stage for several weeks, but Holtcamp said they became formally operational on Monday, August 7.

Besides the information on each local residence, Holtcamp said the computers will be used to store the tremendous volume of information fire departments are required to handle under the SARA (right to know) and Title III acts, along with detailed plans regarding how the department is going to handle hazardous materials in case of an emergency. Once his department has completed programming the mandated information, he said it will undoubtedly find additional uses for the computer system.

"This is not the end of the progress to be made regarding the handling of information by the Beaver Creek Fire Department," Holtcamp stated, "but just another step, and it will be onward and upward from here."

County Ambulance

"People retiring in this area need to know that their medical needs are going to be met," he said, "and the commissioners are all of the common belief that come Sept. 12, the county will not be without an ambulance service." McLachlan said it is still uncertain whether this will be a county service or a privately operated ambulance service.

Commissioner Joseph Callewaert said that for most issues he would agree with the election route, except that the financial difficulties the county is presently trying to deal with are the result the county's response to the last ambulance millage vote. County taxpayers defeated the ambulance millage election, and the county tried to keep the service operating by using alternative funding.

Callewaert said he would like to see a study conducted by the Mackinac Center in Midland (a think tank corporation) to examine the feasibility of merging the county ambulance and the local private service into one service that would handle enough calls to enable it to survive.

According to Callewaert, the study would cost about $2,500 and could be completed in six weeks.

"I perceive the result of this plan as a step toward the creation of a tax-paying entity rather than a tax burden," he stated.

If the county decides to put a millage proposal before Crawford County voters this fall and it is approved, Beth Wieland, County Clerk, said tax monies will not be available to the financially troubled county ambulance service until

Grayling Pioneer Family Gathers for 110th Reunion

One hundred ten years ago Peter Wilhelm Stephan and Helen Thinner Stephan arrived in Grayling from France to make their home down river in the area now known as Stephan Bridge. To celebrate the occasion over 200 descendants of the original couple gathered over the weekend of August 5-6, 1989, at the Pat and Bernie Fowler residence to renew acquaintances and compare historical notes.

Peter and his oldest son, William, had arrived in Jackson, Michigan, in about 1874, where he apparently worked in the railroad yards. Hearing about the wonderful opportunities in the north country for good land, he sent for his family. Helene Stephan came from LeHavre in 1879 with Helene (married Martin Christenson), Louise (married Phillip Moshier), Jeanne (married Reuben Babbitt, Jr.), Leon, John, Henri, and George. With her husband, Peter, and son, William, they all came to Grayling. Another son, Dan, was born in Crawford county the year after they arrived.

The reunion weekend started with a bonfire on Saturday evening at 9:30 p.m. at the Jeff Fowler residence just upriver from his parents. On Sunday morning, the family began congregating for coffee at 9:30 a.m. Family pictures and treasures were displayed as well as a computer printout of approximately 900 people in the family, 650 of them direct descendants of the original couple. When the ancestral file is complete, it should contain about 1200 descendants and their spouses.

At 10:30 a.m. the group walked up the hill to the Stephan family cemetery where Rev. Don Stephan of Boise, Idaho, conducted a memorial service. From there they walked to the site of the original home. After establishing his family at a neighbors, Peter Stephan had come back into Grayling, bought lumber, made it into a raft and floated it to Jasper's Landing, where he hired someone with a horse and wagon to take it on to the hill above the river. A machinist by trade, Peter had visions of a dam across the river from hill to hill.

At noon the family enjoyed a bountiful potluck dinner and in spite of the very cold weather, a lot of visiting and reminiscing took place. If the weather had cooperated, many of them had planned to swim, tube, or take boat rides. Later in the afternoon a small group of people did take some boat rides.

During the course of the day, some awards were handed out to various family members. Receiving copies of original French birth certificates were the youngest member present of that particular branch of the family: Anne Elizabeth Sojka from the George Stephan family; Harold Babbitt from the Jenny Stephan family; Colby Parent from the John Stephan family; Sean Killarney from the Leon Stephan family; Chelsea Martin and K.C. York from the Henri Stephan family; Scott Bearss from the Louise Stephan family; Kenna Rae Stephan from the Dan Stephan family; and Paul Smith from the Helene Stephan Christenson family. Matilda Hunter was given a gift as the oldest member of the family present and Tanya Sojka received a picture for the one coming from the furthest away; she came from Tokyo, Japan. The picture was done by Jan Haller of San Francisco and will be passed on in five years to the one coming from the furthest distance at that time.

Mary Esther Skingley Lokken of San Antonio, Texas, was on hand with copies of her family history, "Indians in Our Trees," which is still available to anyone by calling Beth Seator at 348-9773.

Families from out-of-town attending the reunion were the Stuart Fowlers of Gaylord, Harold Babbitts of Frederic, Rodney Neys of Ellsworth AFB, South Dakota, George Lokkens of San Antonio, Texas, Gary Churches of Harbor Springs, Don Stephens of Boise, Idaho, Stanley Stephens of Cadillac, Bob Stephens of Haslett, Brad Stephens of Flint, Mike Stephens of Cadillac, Ron Walkers of Virginia, Mike and David Hunter of Chicago, Richard Stephens of Southgate, Myrtle Vallad of Kalamazoo, Howard Stephens of Livonia, Dennis Dixons of Comstock Park, Michael Dixon of Kalamazoo, Richard Smiths of Saugerties, New York, Gerald Kubany of Garden City, David Stephens of Walled Lake, Peggy Parent of Elk Rapids, Lyle Wolfingers of Jackson, Gar Martins of East Lansing, Frank Cooks of Lansing, Kelth

Hospice Volunteer Training to Start

Hospice of Crawford County will co-sponsor with Hospice of Roscommon County a training session for Hospice Volunteers. The sessions will be held on Monday and Wednesday evenings beginning September 11.

The twelve session program includes the role of Hospice Volunteers, Grief, Bereavement, Family Systems, Pain Management, Interdisciplinary Team and other key educational and support material. The joint sessions will be held at St. Michael's Church, Roscommon from 7-9 p.m.

Hospice of Crawford County offers a program which enables ill persons to live effectively when curative treatment is no longer possible and when heroic measures to prolong life are not appropriate or desired. Hospice Volunteers provide assistance to patients and their families by listening and supporting, promoting communication among family members, providing assistance with transportation, shopping and errands, staying with the patient while the family has some time for themselves and to provide support for surviving loved ones in the grieving period following the death.

Since its beginning in 1987, Hospice Volunteers have provided services to 35 clients and families in Crawford County. Please call and become involved in this worthwhile Community Service for Crawford County residents. They need male and female volunteers, clerical and direct-client call volunteers, and professional and non-professional volunteers who can give several hours each week or month.

Boy Scouts Visit Capitol

It's been a busy summer for Boy Scout Troop 979 starting with a week of summer camp July 16-23 at Paul Bunyan Scout Reservation near Rose City. At summer camp for troop 979 were Tom Mason, Cullen Yoder, Mike Johnson, Robbie Wakeley, Loren Lugvlied, Eddie Brannon, Brad Prause, Greg Barnum, Dan Weaver, Steve Anderson and scoutmaster Loren Goodale III.

There were a total of 17 merit badges, 11 skill awards and 3 rank advancements completed at camp. The scouts participated in activities like swimming, nature, scout craft, archery and rifle shooting. Two special features during the week were the Paul Bunyan Olympics and water carnival.

After being home for just 6 days the troop was off again, this time to Washington D.C. and the National Jamboree. Representing the troop this time were, Steve Anderson, Dan Weaver, Brad Prause, Greg Barnum, Mike Johnson, Cullen Yoder, Tom Mason, Robbie Wakeley and Loren Lugvlied. Leaders were Loren Goodale III, Don Prause and Steve Anderson.

The scouts did many things in Washington including visiting the White House, Capitol, Washington Monument, Lincoln Memorial, Vietnam

Memorial and many more. They also had a meeting with Congressman Bill Schutte who answered questions from the scouts and sent his aides with them to visit the House of Representatives in session. The scouts also visited the National Jamboree where over 32,000 scouts were camped.

Prices Halt Paper Drive

The local newspaper drive which helped fund all this fun activity has been closed down for a number of reasons. One being the storage trailer they use which was recently donated by the Crawford Otsego Landfill is sinking in the sand and tipping over. To remedy this we need to unload part of the papers which leads to problem #2. Because of the amount of recycling going on they cannot get rid of any papers. The mills are all over-loaded which has pushed the price down to zero. This is no longer a good money maker. The Scouts want to thank all who have donated over the years and look forward to your support on their next project. They hope the market will come back up soon and allow them to start up again, but for now a 20-year-plus tradition has come to a halt.

The Grayling Boosters Club and Grayling Rotary Club helped with financial assistance in making this summer so successful and meaningful for the scouts. Weyerhaeuser and Georgia Pacific also donated materials to help improve the meeting hall. If you would like more information about Boy Scouts or would like to join and are between the ages of 11-18 the meetings for the summer are Monday night 7:30 - 9:00 behind Goodales Bakery. They are also looking for adult assistance, even if you have no one in the troop.

Rockhounds in Area Invited by Club

Are there any Rockhounds in the Grayling area? It is one of the most common hobbies, the picking up of an interesting stone by the roadside, at the beach or near a gravel pit. It's an easy step from that stage to systematically organizing and labeling a collection -- a family hobby for all ages.

Those interested are invited to join the Rock and Mineral club at Roscommon. In lieu of their regular meeting this month they will visit the rock and Gem show at Hale, MI, where some of our members are exhibiting. It will feature a world-wide collection of crystals, gem stones and rocks as well as fossils. There will be a display of fluorescent rocks under black light, as well as a slide show every hour. Children have their own table where they'll learn Petoskey stone polishing. All this is free.

In addition there will be dealers selling gem stones, bookends, clocks, etc. This will be held at the Plainfield Township Hall in Hale, one block north of the light, Saturday, Aug. 19, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Sunday, Aug. 20, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

For information call Mary Jane Emery, 275-5579.

Children from households whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free and reduced-price meals or free milk.

Application forms are being sent to all homes with a letter to parents or guardians. To apply for free or reduced-price meals, households should fill out the form and return it to the school. Additional copies of the application form are available at the principal's office in each school. An application which does not contain all of the following information cannot be processed by the school: (1) the total monthly household income AND the amount and source of income received by each household member (such as wages, child support, etc.) OR the household's food stamp case or AFDC number if the household is on food stamps or receives AFDC; (2) names of all household members; (3) social security numbers of all household members 21 years of age and older, or the word "none" for any adult household member who does not have a social security number; and (4) the signature of an adult household member.

FOOD STAMP/AEFC HOUSEHOLDS: If you currently receive Food Stamps or "Aid to Families with Dependent Children" (AFDC) for your child, you only have to list your child's name and Food Stamp or AFDC case number, print your name and sign the application.

The information provided by the household is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility and verifying data. Applications may be verified by the school or other officials at any time during the school year. If children are approved for free or reduced-price meal or free milk benefits, the household must report to the school increases in household income over $50 per month ($600 per year) and decreases in household size.

Households may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If a household is not currently eligible but has a decrease in household income, an increase in household size or if a household member becomes unemployed, the household should fill out an application at that time.

In most cases foster children are eligible for these benefits regardless of the household's income. If a household has foster children living with them and they wish to apply for free or reduced-price meals or milk for them, the household should contact the school for more information.

Under the provisions of the policy, Director of Special Education will review applications and determine eligibility.

Parents or guardians dissatisfied with the ruling of the official may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. The household also has the right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling or writing the following official: George Johnson

SPORTS FANS!

Bet You Didn't Know

Brought To You By Bill Hart

Here's an interesting football question...Can you name the only school that's won the national championship in major-college football-but doesn't play major-college football any more?...The only school that's done that is the University of Chicago. Chicago won the national championship in major-college football in the early 1900's and was once a power in the Big Ten Conference, but they gave up football entirely in 1939 and now play small-college football.

Here's an oddity...Football is often called the "pigskin" sport, and the football itself is called the "pigskin", but footballs aren't made from pigskin anymore...Most footballs today are made from cowhide.

Some players are so well known by their nicknames that few fans can come up with the players' real first names...For instance, what are the real first names of Babe Ruth, Yogi Berra, Dizzy Dean, Goose Gosage and Bo Jackson?...Here are the answers: George Ruth, Lawrence Berra, Jay Dean, Richard Gosage and Vincent Jackson.

I bet you didn't know...that Bill Hart is a legend in his own mind. If you don't believe me just ask him while buying a new vehicle before the weather breaks.

Michigan Troops Here Need Night Training

By Staff Sgt.
Steve Perkins

Some people question the validity of nighttime training at Camp Grayling. Especially trouble-some to some people is the live-fire exercises after dark. Although to some people in the Grayling area this may be an annoying activity, it is essential to units accomplishing their mission. Some background may help in understanding these noises in the dark.

Under the Total Force Policy, this country relies more heavily on Guard and Reserve forces in times of war. As a result Michigan National Guardsmen must be better prepared than in the past.

Lt. Col. Philip LaChance, Training

Officer for Headquarters State Area Command (STARC), Michigan National Guard, said "Total Force" is not just a policy, but has to be a way of life.

"We are a total force. We need to train the same as active duty units because we must maintain a high level of preparedness as there will be no extra time for additional training if something happens". He said Guard troops must be able to execute their wartime mission with maximum efficiency.

Because of an expanded role in the defense of our nation, these units have spent more time training in the field than ever before. Field portions of annual training have continually expanded over the past few years to the present length of 10 days. This also increases the amount of operations done at night. Army doctrine makes nighttime operations crucial. Infantry, artillery and other frontline units will conduct extensive night operations because they will be patrolling and conducting offensive operations at night in future conflicts. Darkness affords them valuable concealment, but it also offers the same advantage to their foes.

An integral element to infantry missions is indirect fire support, especially mortars, artillery and close air support. They use this support to ward off attacks, provide light when needed, and give what could be the decisive edge when on the offensive. But to do this, these supporting members must be ready.

The key to readiness is realistic training; training as close to combat conditions as possible. In order to reach this level of readiness, combat support soldiers must learn how to function well at any time, in a moment's notice-lives depend upon this.

1st Lt. Garret A. Brand, commander of B Battery, 1st Battalion, 119th Field Artillery, says combat is a 24-hour a day job.

"War isn't fought on a timetable," said Brand, "the enemy doesn't quit at a certain time every day."

Brand said certain parts of an artilleryman's job can only be done if the unit operates and fires around the clock.

Capt. Michael S. Baker, commander for C Battery, 1st Battalion, 119th Field Artillery agrees with Brand.

"To train realistically, our troops need the experience of working 24 hours a day-to expect a firing mission at any time," Baker said. "We have to test our sustainment training and sleep programs. Our troops must be taxed both physically and technically".

According to LaChance, more wartime missions are run under cover of darkness. Darkness is preferred because it is a natural form of concealment. However, there are challenges involved in operating at night. All skills, such as land navigation and identifying the enemy, which are done with relative ease in daylight become extremely difficult in the dark. As LaChance puts it, "night training enhances skills learned in daytime. It also develops individual and unit confidence in their ability to perform their wartime tasks".

2-Part Musical Slated At GHS Auditorium

The Adult and Community Education Program in conjunction with the Michigan Opera Theater Department of Community Programs (David DiChiera, General Director) is pleased to announce the performance of a two-part musical program at the Joseph Stripe Auditorium in the Grayling High School on October 14, 1989, at 7:30 p.m.

The first part of the program will take the audience from the turn of the century to the Roaring Twenties. During this time, Detroit was the home of the Jerome Remick sheet music company - publishers and distributors of popular songs. Rekindle a delightful slice of Americana through such songs as "In My Merry Oldsmobile", "Baby Face," and "Carolina in the Morning," to name a few of the songs popularized by this company. Authentic costumes and dances will be used in this part of the production.

After a short intermission, the second part of this program called "Broadway Babes and Phantoms" will spin through familiar Broadway tunes from the past sixty years. The music made famous by Berlin, Gershwin and Arlen from a host of Broadway Musicals climaxing with Les Miserables and Phantom of the Opera will be presented in this part of the performance.

Tickets for this event will be $5 for adults and $4 for Senior Citizens and students. There will be only 500 tickets available for this performance. It is suggested that you order your ticket early. Call the Community Education Office at 348-7641 Ext. 27.

... about your Social Security

People who are covered by both Medicare and private medical insurance should submit their bills to the private insurance carrier first under some circumstances.

The law specifies Medicare as the secondary payer for people who are covered by an employer health plan in addition to their Medicare. The bills should be sent first to the employer health plan, and then sent to Medicare if the employer plan does not pay the entire bill. This applies to persons covered based on their own employment, or the employment of their spouse.

Medicare also pays second if a person is injured in an automobile accident and the expenses are paid by personal automobile medical insurance. State no-fault automobile insurance, or liability insurance. In the case of liability insurance, the person may file a claim with Medicare first, which will get its payment back when the liability insurance pays.

Questions about Medicare coverage or about submitting bills to Medicare should be directed to the Medicare carrier for this area. The toll-free phone number for people calling from the 616 area code is 800-442-8020. From the 517 area code, call 800-322-

To apply for Medicare coverage, which people should do two to three months before age 65, call Social Security toll-free at 800-2345-SSA, or visit the nearest Social Security office. People who are already receiving Social Security checks when they become age 65, do not need to apply for Medicare. They should receive a Medicare card in the mail automatically before their 65th birthday month.

The Traverse City Social Security office is located at 1111 E. Front St. Office hours are 9:00 to 4:30, Monday through Friday, except holidays.

Features

Verse or Worse

By Joseph D. Murphy

So Long Neighbor

*There was always a smile and a friendly wave
When ever we should chance to meet
They have been real nice neighbors
Those folks from across the street*

*We could leave our home with an easy mind
Knowing they would watch when they were there
That no one broke into our home
For they showed concern and care*

*They would always offer a helping hand
If you were in a bind
They were just the kind of folks
That rest easy in your mind*

*We wish them all the best of luck
May good fortune come their way
We will be sorry to see them go
It would be nice if they could stay*

*But sometimes we must make a change
As time reveals the road to take
We hope they find a great new life
In their new home across the lake*

*Never a harsh word passed between us
We never got in each others hair
The neighborhood will never be the same
Without the Flemings there*

Deadlines for elk and antlerless deer licenses are rapidly approaching. Applications for elk licenses must be postmarked by September 1. This will put your name in the hat for both the October and the December hunts. If you are only interested in the December hunt, you have until September 15 to apply. There is a $4.00 non-refundable application fee which covers the administrative cost of holding the drawing for successful applicants. The license itself is $100.35.

The antlerless deer permit applications must be postmarked by September 24.

Also, a special early Canada Goose season will be held throughout most of the lower peninsula from September 1 through 10. The liberal bag limit of 3 Canada geese per day (6 goose possession limit) is designed to control a large and growing population of giant Canada geese.

Hunters must have a proper license and both state and federal waterfowl stamps (if 16 or older). Also steel shot is required for all waterfowl hunting this year. Other normal waterfowl hunting rules also apply.

Most of the Deer Management Units in the state will be open for these bonus deer licenses. Locally however, most of Crawford and Roscommon Counties and large portions of Oscoda, Ogemaw and Missaukee counties will be closed. Check the application guide for details.

There is a $3.00 non-refundable application fee for this drawing. This year, successful applicants will receive a "Bonus Deer License" which allows them to take an antlerless deer or a deer with antlers less than 3 inches in addition to a legal buck. A second license for a legal buck will also be available for purchase after September 24.

Doodles from the Tall Timber

As I walked around the campground to invite the campers to the evening program I could not overlook the many changes. Not only has the style of camping changed, but where it is done has changed also. Once there were only 48 sites, now there are 62 and perhaps before I stop inviting people to evening programs there will be a new 100 site campground.

Twenty-three years ago my family's mobile home sat where one of the campsites is located and I was reminded as I approached a family sitting around a campfire that they were seated where my living room had been. At another site nearby, other people were eating their supper where I had watched deer playing from that same living room.

Twenty-three years ago we would not have thought about having even one festival in the park let alone three in a summer, but now we take it as a matter of fact. We are getting ready for one of the largest blacksmithing roundups ever. Last year there were 24 blacksmiths and this year it appears like there may be as many as 40 on hand to demonstrate their skills. If you missed the music festival don't miss this one. We will be ready for the 28th and 27th of August so make plans to join the music festival.

A Look At Our Past

23 YEARS AGO
August 18, 1966

Reconstruction of the building which housed the Minnesota Pavilion at the New York World Fair began on Tuesday, August 18, at Grayling's Bear Mountain. The new building was called the Polyhedron Lodge, and housed a modern kitchen, a dining room that seated 280 persons, and two upper floors of sleeping facilities for overnight youth and family groups.

A sprinkling ban was lifted. The big city well resumed production on Friday, August 12.

U.S. Rep. Elford A. Cederberg notified the Avalanche that the launching of the nuclear-power submarine USS Grayling, slated for September 17th, had been postponed until February 25, 1967. The drop back of the scheduled launching was necessitated by certain safety revisions which came to light following the disastrous sinking of the USS Thresher.

The d-Fenders from Grayling won the tenth round of the State Championship Battle of the Bands by what one Saginaw disc-jockey termed "a fantastic landslide." The d-Fenders swept the title by 461 votes. The band is looking forward to the semi-finals on August 23.

The State Water Resources Commission has ordered a comprehensive water quality survey for the AuSable River. Samples were tested for the amount of dissolved oxygen present, the concentration of various chemical components. From the data collected, the Commission made recommendation for the protection and enhancement of the AuSable as a trout stream.

Terry SanCartier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd SanCartier, was home for a 10 day leave. At the end of his leave, SanCartier was being shipped to Puerto Rico.

46 YEARS AGO
August 19, 1943

Lt. Ivan Rice, for two years an employee at the Avalanche office, is now in the air service, with American fliers in England. He came to Grayling from Meredosia, Illinois, and his home town newspaper last week published an account of his bringing back to England a crippled bomber, on which he was a co-pilot, after it had been in battle over Germany. "Punctured by nearly a thousand bullet anti-aircraft holes the Flying Fortress 'Patches' really lived up to its name when it limped back to a U.S. Bomber Station in England from a raid on Kassel, Germany, June 30. The bomber reached Kassel without incident, the bombardier released the explosives and trouble began. Besieged by enemy fighters and bounced around by anti-aircraft explosives "Patches" fought back to enemy coast despite jammed throttles, badly damaged controls, a chunk torn from the rudder and most of the elevator gone. The top turret gunner suffered a fractured leg, both waist gunners were knocked unconscious but shock was their only injury. The pilot was shot through the right hip and forced to relinquish the controls to the co-pilot Second Lt. Ivan Rice. It required the efforts and skill of both pilots to safely land the plane on a southern England field because a flat tire made the landing more difficult."

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mathewson entertained at Richardson Lodge Monday evening with an open house for their son "Jo" who was leaving that evening to enter the Marine ser-vise.

Private Thelma Hubbell, who trained for motor transport but paints with the hand of a genius, has prepared for the WAC dayroom one of the most fascinating murals yet to be done by any artist depicting woman's venture into man's world of war.

Liquor rationing goes into effect beginning today. Persons are allowed one quart a month.

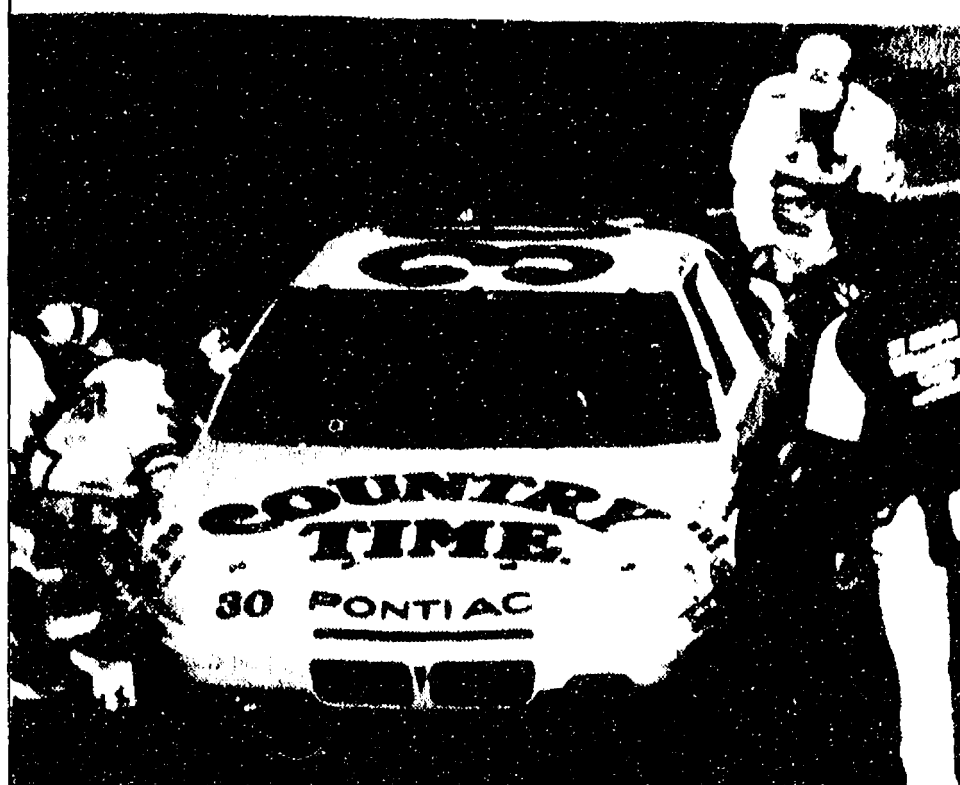

Bill Kinkert, a nephew of Mrs. Roy Sindlinger, who has been serving in the Marines in the Solomon Islands area and who has been home on furlough, was in eight battle engagements and was wounded several times. With a serious leg injury he was hospitalized and says to tell the people at home he received the best of care and treatment.

Song of the Fiddlin' Farmer

There was a time a few years ago
In this great land of ours
When every man was proud of his hands
And thrived on his own willpower.

But the past few years has put an end
To man's pride in his own ambition
And he's forgotten how his father lived
He's forgotten the word "tradition."

They didn't have Social Security,
Or pension plans in old Grandad's time
If you didn't save for a rainy day
You grew old without a dime.

And they didn't have Welfare and A.D.C.
To raise all the illegitimate kids
If a girl had a baby and didn't have a man
That was something that was pretty well hid.

In this world of ours, in these modern times
Almost everything that comes to my mind
Has changed for the worse, we've lost all our morals Through Hippies and free love, and things of that kind.

For several years now, we haven't had to guess
At how our females were made
In their short mini dresses and see through clothes
Sex has been on parade.

But we are to blame for this awful change
In just one short generation
Our young folks now rule, at home and at school
And we fall to every temptation.

Automation and computers and unions,
And strikes and pensions and Social Security,
And riots and protests and murders and rape,
All have reached maturity.

We've shot our resources up at the moon
And wasted our young in a war
We've raised everyone's pay in the big giveaway
And still we are asking for more.

Now, how far can we get in this race of ours
To see who can get the most
Out of taxes and benefits and the giveaway plans
That surround us from pillar to post.

I think the time is close to us now
To answer for the abuse to our land
And I think that our only salvation
Is again, pride in the strength of our hands.

Road Commission Minutes

July 21, 1989
A regular meeting of the Crawford County Road Commission was held in their office in Grayling. Present were: Chairman Norman Parker, Commissioners Gloria Kraus and Clyde Anthony, Engineer-Manager John Keir, Accounting Clerk Joanne Thompson, Chairman of Roads and Bridges Bob Nelson and Garland Joyce.

The minutes of the previous meeting of July 7, 1989 were read. Commissioner Anthony made a motion to accept the minutes, seconded by Commissioner Kraus. All voted in favor, minutes approved.

Payroll Voucher Number 14 in the amount of $29,540.56 and Material checks numbered 15301 through 15362 in the amount of $51,942.70 were presented to the Board for approval of payment. A motion was made by Commissioner Anthony and seconded by Commissioner Kraus to accept the vouchers.

Permits reviewed and signed were: GTE to bury communication cable on Lovells Road in Lovells Township; Shell Western to conduct a seismic survey on Sherman Road in Maple Forest Township and Grayling Township and also to construct a driveway on Old 27 in Frederic Township; Union Oil company to bury steel pipeline along Fletcher Road in Beaver Creek Township; Grant Norpac to conduct a seismic survey along Hunters Lake Road in South Branch Township.

Correspondence was reviewed from Jerry Ulatowski and R. Howell regarding local roads.

Chairman Parker informed the Board that the MCRCSP Workshop he attended was very informative. Discussion was held on a request for release of right of way and the proper forms are being drawn up. Commissioner Anthony has received a request for brine on Stephan Bridge Road which has had some extremely heavy National Guard traffic lately.

Discussion was held on the need for a lift bucket and the rental of equipment. Engineer-Manager Keir was instructed to gather information. Category "A" Funding application shall be made when the forms are received from Michigan Dept. of Transportation Local Services Division.

There being no further business before the Board, a motion was made and seconded to adjourn. All voted in favor, meeting adjourned.

The Bible Speaks

The Gospel of John Part #92
Prayer for Our Salvation

Today we begin John 17 where Jesus Christ is praying for all Christians. The first five verses deal with our salvation which Christ was about to accomplish on the cross. "These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee." (John 17:1). This verse reminds us of the preeminence of the Trinity, the time, and the triumph in the glory of our salvation. In verses 2-4 we observe the provisions of glory for our salvation.

First, the glorified will of verse 2. "As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him." (John 17:2). Here we observe the power, provision, and plan of God's will stated. In verse 3 we have the glorified witness of our salvation. "And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent." (John 17:3). We receive Jesus Christ and eternal life as described in I John 5:9-13. As a result we know Jesus Christ as true God. "This is the true God, and eternal life." (I John 5:20b). And last, we are reminded of the glorified work of our salvation. "I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do." (John 17:4). Christ looked at the cross as already finished in the eternal mind of God. Herein we know God's will, witness, and work to accomplish our salvation in Christ.

Finally, Jesus Christ prayed for the perfected glory of our salvation. "And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was." (John 17:5). A restatement of the deity of Jesus Christ from eternity past. He laid aside the voluntary use of His divine attributes to come to earth as a man that He might die on the cross for our sins. Following His resurrection and ascension, He returned to the full glory of God which He shared with the Holy Spirit.

Our Lord Jesus Christ is the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world in Revelation 13:8. He is the lamb worthy to receive glory, honor, power, and blessing, and to be worshipped as God. (Revelation 5:12-14). "Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." (Phil. 2:9-11). Do you know our Lord Jesus Christ as your savior and God? (Hear "The Bible Speaks" at 12:15 p.m. Tuesday on WQON 100 FM).

... what a responsibility! That is the crux of parenthood. We not only rear our children, providing for their needs and development, but we make important decisions that can have lasting impact on their lives.

One vital decision concerns their opportunity for spiritual growth. It is a blessing to grow up in a land where faith and freedom are revered. But it is a fact of family life that parents decide whether or not to cultivate their children's moral and religious development.

The churches and synagogues of our community are eager to help you mold the convictions and character of your children.

Welcome their help.

Daily Games have been a major factor in the success of the Michigan Lottery since 1977. As a result, many readers have expressed interest in learning more about them.

Q. When Did These Games Start in Michigan?

A. The Daily 3 Game began on July 6, 1977, and the Daily 4 on October 4, 1981.

Q. Are There A Lot of Winners?

A. Both games have thousands of winners on each of the six weekly drawing nights. There have been more than 15 million winners in the Daily 3, for example. Over one million of those occurred during the first nine months of the current fiscal year.

Q. How Much Can Be Won?

A. A single wager in the Daily 3 can win up to $500 depending on whether the wager is straight, boxed or a combination. The Daily 4 has a $5,000 top prize. Of course, players holding a number of tickets with the winning number collect duplicate prizes.

Q. How Do I Collect If I Win?

A. Retailers selling these games can pay all prizes up to $500 immediately after the drawings are completed at 7:30 each night. Larger amounts can be collected Monday through Friday at any Lottery regional office.

Q. If Players Get Lucky, Couldn't The Prize Total Be More Than The Amount Played?

A. Yes. Between the two Daily Games, this has happened about 48 times in each of the last several years. The Lottery pays the full amount no matter how much is won.

Q. What's Been The Record Payout So Far?

A. On June 10, 1986, the Daily 3 paid out $4,955,980 on the number 123. This was equal to 489 percent of the amount played that day.

Q. What's The Daily 4 Record?

A. On October 15, 1986, the Daily 4 number, 1028, awarded $2,757,908, or 658 percent of the amount played.

Q. What Numbers Can I Play?

A. In the Daily 3, any number from 000 to 999, and in the Daily 4, 0000 through 9999. Your retailer can also give you an "Easy Pick" in which the Lottery computer makes a random number selection for you.

Q. Can I See The Drawings?

A. Live Daily 3 and 4 drawings are now telecast on a non-station TV, 26, on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 7:29 p.m. and the results are announced on Wednesday during the Super Lotto drawing. On Saturday nights, the Daily 3 and 4 drawings are conducted live during the Fame & Fortune show, between 7:30-8:00 p.m. The live drawings are also heard on 11 radio stations around the state.

Q. The Drawing Equipment Looks New. Is It?

A. New Daily game drawing machines, similar to those used for Zinger drawings, were just introduced on July 24, 1989. These machines draw both the Daily 3 and 4 to be seen and heard in the one-minute time slot formerly used by the Daily 3 drawing.

For submitting the first question leading to this column, Theresa Newcomb of Roseville will receive 50 "Fame & Fortune" tickets. Note: When duplicate questions are received, that with the earliest date stamp upon arrival at Lottery Central wins. In case of a tie, the winner is selected by random drawing.

If you have a question not yet covered in these monthly columns, send it to "Winners Circle," Michigan Lottery, P.O. Box 38077, Lansing, MI 48909.
